Dave's Cosmic Subs Announces Strategic Closure of Select Locations and Expansion into New Markets

May 7, 2025 — Cleveland, OH – Dave's Cosmic Subs, the iconic sub sandwich brand known for its psychedelic vibe and legendary flavors, has announced the strategic closure of a limited number of underperforming locations. This decision is part of a broader repositioning effort aimed at strengthening the brand and accelerating its national growth.

“These closures are not a setback—they're a reset,” said the company in a statement. “As part of our long-term strategy, we've made the proactive decision to close certain locations that no longer align with our growth vision or market dynamics. This move allows us to refocus our energy and resources on new, high-potential markets that are showing strong demand for our brand.”

In conjunction with the closures, Dave's Cosmic Subs is proud to announce exciting plans to open new locations in several key trade areas, including Atlanta, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, and Nashville. These cities represent vibrant, growing markets with a strong appetite for the unique Dave's Cosmic Subs experience.

“We're investing in the future of Dave's,” the statement continued. “Our upcoming locations in these dynamic cities will bring our cosmic culture and craveable menu to a broader audience, while reinforcing our commitment to quality, consistency, and community.”

Dave's Cosmic Subs remains committed to its loyal customer base and to expanding the brand in a thoughtful, impactful way. Fans can expect more announcements soon as new locations open and the next chapter of Dave's Cosmic Subs unfolds.
